The Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about October 14, 2010 you or your organization committed the following violation of Federal Regulations:

9 CFR, SECTION

Failure to

2.40 (b)(2)

- Establish and maintain adequate veterinary care programs that include the use of appropriate methods to prevent, control, diagnose, and treat diseases and injuries, and the availability of emergency, weekend, and holiday care.

( Two of the goats in the off exhibit housing area have severely overgrown feet. One female white goat is crawling on her knees and when she got up, she walked with an exaggerated high-stepping gait. All four feet are overgrown, curling up, and the goat is walking back on the heels, exhibiting pain. The large black and tan goat also has all four feet overgrown, with toes curling up, and is walking on its heels.)

Titles 7 & 9 Code of Federal Regulations were promulgated to help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases and assure the humane treatment of animals. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impact detrimental to the public interest, you are warned of this violation. Any further violation of these regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty or criminal prosecution. If you have any questions concerning this warning or violation, please contact the listed APHIS Official.
